

BIM Coordinator/Manager (Office/Hybrid)

Jones King Partnership are looking to employ the services of a BIM Coordinator/Manager to join our team of friendly and experienced Building Services Engineers.

Based in a quiet area just West of Bristol, Jones King Partnership can offer the opportunity to become an integral member of the Building Services department. You'll be working on a variety of exciting and high-profile projects! Jones King Partnership have provided services on the recently completed RIBA Stirling Prize Award Winner (2021) Kingston University Town House and the UK's first Passivhaus Secondary School, The Harris Academy Sutton, for example!

We are looking for a candidate with the following credentials:

- Skilled user of Autodesk Revit, AutoCAD and associated plug-in tools
- Minimum 2 years' experience in delivering BIM on Building Services projects
- An understanding of Building Services and the wider aspects of construction projects
- Knowledge of ISO 19650 series and the UK BIM Framework
- Ability to produce and manage federated models, clash detection reports, change overlays and coordinated services models
- Well versed in the setup, review and implementation of BIM Execution Plans (BEPs), Information Delivery Plans, Naming Conventions and Model Standards
- Familiarity with Common Data Environments (CDEs) (e.g. BIM 360, Viewpoint etc.)
- Experience in the use and management of outsourcing to deliver BIM projects
- Capable of developing and improving internal BIM workflows, templates and standards
- Ability to lead model coordination meetings with internal teams and external consultants
- Comfortable working independently with autonomy as well as part of a team
- Brilliant time management and organisational skills
- Excellent communication skills and attention to detail

We can offer a salary range of £34,000 - £48,000/annum plus Benefits and Hybrid working. (Depending on experience)
